

Toxic Production Website

Chicago is home for some of the most influential music makers of our time, adding to this legacy is producer/rapper Toxic. Toxic (Toxic Productions) has an impressive resume, crafting hits for Keyshia Cole, Monica, Twista, Charlie Wilson, Jamie Fox, Do or Die, Lil' Kim, Faith Evans, T-Pain Too Short just to name a few. "I have been fortunate to work with so many great artist and it challenges me to raise the bar and I love a good challenge" Toxic Stated.

His-tory

Toxic embraced hip-hop while listening to artists like LL Cool J, Rakim, and N.W.A. Battle rapping became his creative outlet at the age of 14, during that time he met his friend and long time collaborator Twista. In 1994, he joined up with the group Ill-State Assassins, and from that experience his group 3 in the Chamba, was established. It was then he made the transition from rapper to producer having cut his first tracks with 3 in the Chamba under the guidance of DJ Riot One & Chain Saw. From that moment on he became addicted to the rush of having artists perform on his tracks, "I did my first beat and got a response from it... being in a studio, working on a beat from beginning to end, and seeing somebody put something down on it is really when I got the juice for it," remembers Toxic. Afterward, Toxic started engineering and working with Chicago break out rapper Twista on his albums. These collaborations would be instrumental in the development of Toxic's sound, he notes, "Twista was the final ingredient to the stew... He gave me the full spectrum of everything. Twista brings the best out of me on the music side."

Toxic, is now a multi-platinum, Grammy nominated music producer. Toxic, along with Twista, started an independent company in 1998 entitled Legit Ballin Records, which collectively sold over 500,000 records. Toxic played the roll as CEO and Head of Administrations. Legit Ballin Records was proclaimed one of the top 5 companies from 1999 - 2002.

In 2004, Toxic produced Twista's Kamikaze record which sold 2 million records worldwide and went platinum in just 4 weeks. The record reached #1 on Billboard for 3 consecutive weeks. Shortly after in 2005, Toxic produced the hit single Hope featuring Twista and Faith Evans which landed on the Coach Carter film soundtrack starring Samuel L. Jackson. The single reached top 10 on Billboard charts.

Just when things we're heating up, Toxic was nominated for a Grammy in 2007 for producing Charlie Wilson's Supa Sexy record featuring T - Pain & Jamie Foxx. Toxic went on to produce hits on all 5 records for Keyshia Cole. 'Trust', a record he produced with Keyshia Cole featuring Monica, was the #1 most added song on the radio in it's first 2 weeks. The smash hit went on to reach #5 on Billboard's R&B/Urban charts top 100, and Toxic won an ASCAP Award in 2010 for his production on the song. ASCAP honors its top members in a series of annual awards shows in seven different music categories: Pop, Rhythm and Soul, Film and Television, Latin, Country, Christian, and Concert Music.

Currently, Toxic took his professional music production to television and film which led him to join forces with JMT Production Group as Partner/Producer and Creative Administrator.

Toxic's music is a hybrid of old school flavor and new school swagger . Classic R&B songs and hip-hop artist such as Ice Cube, Jay-Z, and Lil Wayne, continues to inspire him and his sizziling hot music production. Toxic is the founder and driving force behind TOXIC PRODUCTIONS, and has a team of ultra hot producers and artist.
